ARMISTICE DAY

The Blaimore branch of the British Empire Service League, in conjunction with the Blaimore branch of the I.O.G.E., are holding a memorial service on Wednesday next, November 11th—Armistice Day—in the Orpheum theatre at 11 a.m.

For a number of years, all soldier organizations have been asking that November 11th be set apart as a national memorial day and for the first time that object has been attained this year. In view of this fact it behooves all returned men to turn out on Armistice Day and attend this service, and by so doing show their appreciation of the government's action in setting this day apart as a memorial day.

Rallying to support the Navy League of Canada in its work of assisting widows and orphans of men of the merchant marine service. Blaimore citizens subscribed $35.00 to this cause in a recent campaign here, conducted by Fred Cooke, organizer of the Alberta division.

The Wrong Gender

A member of one of the oriental legations in Washington once called upon a lady of English birth and told her that he had great difficulty in mastering the English language and would most gratefully appreciate any correction she might make in his conversation. Upon leaving he bowed most politely and said:

"Madam, I must be going. I fear I have cock-toached on your time."
"You should have said 'hen-coached,'" corrected the lady.
"Oh thank you, Madam. I see I have the gender wrong."

For Needy Children

Saskatchewan Schools May Lend Helping Hand To Santa Claus

Saskatchewan schools may lend a hand to Santa Claus in preparation for his annual Christmas visitation, and so ensure that he shall have sufficient stock of toys on hand to go to his accustomed round without passing up a single home, if they respond to the call of the Provincial Boy Scouts' Association and the suggestion of the Provincial Department of Education. The Department of Education has endorsed the proposal that the schools of the province co-operate with the Boy Scouts' Association in the establishment of toy repair shops as a "Christmas Good Turn" on behalf of needy children in the community. The objective needs no emendation or explanation other than that, though depression may have penetrated the home, it shall not invade the hearts of the children during the traditional season of peace and goodwill.

In recommending adoption of the Scouts' suggestion, the Department of Education has urged co-operation of the teachers on the ground that the activities as the toy repair shop involves "correlate closely with the content of the school curriculum in industrial arts and in citizenship."

The plan of collecting and renovating toys for ultimate distribution among needy children has been developed to Dominion-wide proportions in recent years, by the Boy Scouts. Christmas of 1929 saw some 114 toy repair shops in operation from which renovated toys were distributed to some 50,000 children who, otherwise, would have been doomed to bitter disappointment on Christmas morning. Last year, more toy shops were organized and an even greater number of needy children made happy. Saskatchewan boy scout groups contributed their share towards making the scheme an unqualified success. This year, with apparently greater need, particularly throughout the southern portion of the province, the campaign is more insistent. Recognizing the wider claim, the co-operation of the schools throughout Saskatchewan has been sought, the Department has given the movement its endorsement and recommended to the attention of school teachers. The toy repair shops should commensurate with the season, and on November 15 and have all work cleared up by December 22, so that workers may have some time for their own Christmas preparations, it is urged.

Information on the organization of toy repair shops may be obtained, if required, from the provincial headquarters of the Boy Scouts of Canada, 208 Darke Block, Regina. Organization covers collection of old or discarded toys, their repair, repainting, and final distribution to the beneficiaries. It is suggested that boys and girls attending school should be organized into teams to collect what old toys may be available around their own homes, enlist the co-operation of relatives, neighbors, and friends in the work, and solicit aid through church and school bulletins. Having organized a source of supply of "raw material," it is necessary, of course, to have a plant, workshop or factory in which to work on the toys. Perhaps the school can lend a room, or boy scout headquarters. The church may supply the need in this respect, or some vacant store or other unused building may be placed at the disposal of Santa's young assistants. So long as the place is bright, light, and is large enough to fulfil the requirements, it will be suitable.

Then comes the matter of the actual repairs. Some may call for ingenuity greater than the young people themselves can supply in such cases, it is suggested that the services of the school manual training instructors be requisitioned. The distinction being that they will readily respond. Boys taking manual training also can supply demands for "skill labor." School principals, church clubs, and teachers will be found ready to co-operate and it is suggested that, wherever a boy scout group has established a toy repair shop all in the community contribute to its success.

Ordinary repair work on small toys, scout experience has shown, can be done surprisingly well by a group of older boys and girls who should work under a "director of repairs" who is a Scoutmaster with some skill in handicraft and a well-stocked tool chest. Mothers and older sisters, it is said, usually prove very sympathetic, and render material assistance in the matter of dolls' clothing and repairs on woolly animals.

The Scout organization on issues, warranting, however, that workers are equipped in serviceable old clothes for, while paint and enamel can convert a battered and decrepit expense wrench, on sled or kiddie car into a thing of beauty or utility, it will completely ruin a perfectly good cut if distributed too lavishly over its surface.

As regards distribution of the toys, it is suggested that the matter be handled by a Scout Group Committee (where there is one), or by a Committee of the school established to take care of it. After local needs are provided for, it is suggested that any remainder be divided among the charitable agencies in the nearest community, for distribution there, on the ground that, if a community-wide effort is made to collect toys, they should be distributed on a community-wide basis.

Where toy shops are organized, leaders are requested to register with the Provincial Scout Headquarters in Regina, in order to facilitate the better organization of what has become the greatest annual country-wide service activity and in which many agencies are lending a helping hand. Toy repair shops also are urged to report final results, giving some idea of the number of toys made happy through the efforts made.

A Terrible Tangle
Strange Situation Results When Man Marries a Widow

"I tell you how it is," said the mild-eyed patient to the asylum doctor, "I met a young widow with a grown-up stepdaughter and married her. That made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and made my stepdaughter my stepmother, and my father became my stepson. See? Then my stepmother, the stepdaughter of my wife, had a son. That boy was of course my brother because he was my father's son, but he was also the son of my wife's stepdaughter and therefore her grandson. Then my wife had a son, my brother-in-law. The step-daughter of my son is also his grandmother because he is her stepson's child. My father is the brother-in-law of my child, because his step-sister is my wife. I am the brother of my own son, who is also the child of my grandmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law, my wife is her own child's aunt, my son is my father's nephew, and I am my own grandfather, and I can't stand it."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

NOVEMBER 8
PAUL AT EPHESUS

Golden Text: "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them."
—Ephesians 6:11.
Lesson: Acts 19; Ephesians 5:5-11.
Devotional Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11.

Explanations and Comments

The Forfeited Chance, verses 8, 9.—On his third missionary journey, Paul came to Ephesus, whence he followed his customary method of speaking to the Jews in the synagogue. For three months he preached there, but instead of heeding his message the Jews hardened their hearts, and some of them even spoke up for "The Way" (used as a synonym by Christians; recall Acts 9:3). Paul, the Christian part of the congregation, both Jews and Gentiles, were compelled to withdraw to the lecture room of Tyrannus. Tyrannus was probably a Gentile who had a school of philosophy, and Paul may have seemed to the Ephesians to be only one of the wandering professors of philosophy who were so numerous at Ephesus.

Two Faithful Years, verse 10.—For years Paul continued to teach in the school of Tyrannus, and "all that dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks." With in easy reach of Ephesus were the other cities of the Province of Asia, on the western shore of Asia Minor, and during these years all the Seven Churches of Asia mentioned in Revelation 1:11 were probably founded. Visitors to the city on their return carried news of the great preacher to every out-of-the-way corner of the province.

Special Miracles Wrought By Paul, verses 11, 12.—God was the power, Paul the instrument. Ephesus was the center of magical arts and practices, a ready atmosphere for manifestations such as are recorded in verse 12. "The handkerchief or apron used by Paul to wipe the sweat from the workman's face, and the apron was the 'semicircular' or workman's short apron."—Barlett.

Belief in such power was general. Superstition abounded. The spirit of expectancy was abroad. Even though their men employed means to display their faith, which were unnecessary and superstitious, says the Cambridge Bible, "because of the reality of the faith, God did not suffer it to lose its reward."

Jewish Exorcists, verses 13-17.—There were strolling Jews in Ephesus who travelled from place to place making their living as magicians and exorcists, professing to be able by the use of incantations and ceremonies to expel evil spirits and deliver men from their malign influence. These Jews began to employ the name of Jesus and Paul in their incantations, saying: "I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth."

Blasphemy against the Book of Acts (19:15), there is the record of the seven sons of Sceva who used the name of Jesus as a magical incantation to expel spirits. We have to recognize that then, as now, merely psychic power might be confused with power with spiritual power, and produce an inflation of spiritual confidence, strangely devoid of moral quality. And we find from the fact that we assert that results of such activity are always either fleeting or pretended. To go no further than the realm of evangelism, there are undoubtedly instances of genuine conversion at the hands of men of worth less character who rendered only lip service to the gospel.—R. C. Gilie.

The evil spirit challenged the right of these sons of Sceva to use these names—crying "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?" And then the man who was possessed of the demon leaped upon two of the exorcists and overpowered them, so that they were forced to flee naked and wounded.

Paul's struggle with evil and victory over the demon-possessed became known with the result that fear fell upon all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. "The city became convinced that the name of Jesus must not be lightly used or trifled with, and so they magnified it."

Air Mail Postage Rates

Reductions Go Into Effect In Order To Stimulate Business

Representations from business men all over Canada, to the effect that lower air-mail postage rates would stimulate them to employ that medium for the transmission of their letters have been accepted by the post office department, and certain reductions have now gone into effect, it was declared by post office officials at Ottawa. Instructions have therefore been sent to postmasters throughout the country informing them of the new rates.

No change has been made on the initial out-of-pocket, this remaining at six cents, but on each succeeding ounce the rate has been cut in half—from 10 cents to five. In general, the new rate is a fast five-cent one, the additional cent for the first ounce being the amount of excise tax.

For international mail, however, there is no alteration in rates.

President Hoover Convinced United States Flag Should Remain Over Island

President Herbert Hoover is convinced the United States flag should remain over the Philippines, where Dewey raised it in 1898, until a firmer footing is found for the island's finances.

Mindful of a new crusade for independence, he accepted the challenge of a controversy with congress by declaring freedom under present conditions would be disastrous for the Filipino people themselves.

Preparing For Christmas

Vancouver Island Shipping Holly and Trees To Eastern Canada

Five hundred tons of holly, mostly from Vancouver Island points and several times that weight of Christmas trees will soon be shipped out of the province to eastern Canada, and points in the United States. TO PRINT OR NOT TO PRINT

One of our exchanges has been severely criticized for not printing the names of all who appear in the police court of his town. The editor takes the position that when the offenders appear in the police court and pay their fines or accept their jail sentences, they are paying in full the demands of society. By publishing their names, the editor insists that he is taking additional toll, and is bringing shame and suffering to members of families who merit better treatment. They are already ashamed, in their relationship.

The Cranbrook Courier, however, takes another view, saying that the best way to keep from being called a thief in print is to refrain from stealing. The Courier continues:

"Someone is always crabbing about having their name appear in the police court docket. Generally speaking, a newspaper contracts to give its readers the news. Filling a contract is not a pleasant business when the news is bad. It must be remembered that the newspaper does not make the news, and is not responsible for it. To blame the newspaper for printing bad news is no more sensible than blaming the mirror for reflecting the morning after the night before, or blaming a physician for the illness of his patient. If the Courier reports a crime committed by some member of your family, it does not by doing so take sides against him, any more than a mirror becomes a partisan when it reflects unpleasant truths. It had much rather report some great accomplishment of his or some conspicuous proof of virtue. But it cannot manufacture facts. If a man who robs a bank falls out with us for reporting the incident, he does not thereby lessen his guilt. He might rave and rant as proof of his resentment, but he would be a rogue still. The paper is not the one to blame. Hating the paper will not change the facts. The way to keep from being called a thief is to refrain from stealing.—Hight River Times.

RAILROAD MAINTAINS OWN WEATHER BUREAU

So concerned are the Canadian National Railways with the vagaries of wind and rain, cloud and sunshine, heat and cold, that they maintain their own weather bureau. Every eight hours, day and night, clicking telegraph keys report to divisional headquarters throughout Canada "what's doing" in the way of weather. The reports determine the temperatures of refrigerator and heater cars, and also determine the crop yields to be hauled to market by the railroad so that, months before harvest time, nearly 40,000 grain cars can be distributed throughout the prairies to handle the grain movement. Track repair work is likewise affected and the loading of trains depends on the weather since a sudden cold snap reduces by as much as thirty per cent the tonnage a locomotive can pull.

CHINESE LILIES HERALD

FIRST INVENTIONS IN CANADA

The recent death of Thomas A. Edison recalls the fact that he, like Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, proved his first invention in Canada. Edison as a youth was a telegraph operator in Canada for the Grand Trunk Railway (now the Canadian National) and it was while so employed at Stratford that he perfected his first invention. It is an interesting coincidence that almost at the same time and only a few miles away at Brantford, Ontario, Alexander Graham Bell was developing his telephone over which the first conversation was held between Brantford and Paris, Ontario, on August 10, 1876.

CHIEF INVENTIONS GIVEN TO HUMANITY BY
THOMAS A. EDISON

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Some of the chief Edison's inventions are:

The incandescent lamp which bathed the globe in a new brilliance. It was given to the world in 1879.

The phonograph, 1877, Edison's favorite invention.

The carbon telephone transmitter, 1873, which made telephony a commercial art.

The microphone, 1878, and the electric valve, which is now fundamentally essential in radio.

Motion pictures, 1894, which have revolutionized the entertainment industry.

An alkaline storage battery.

Machines for quadruple and sexuple telegraphic transmission in 1870-1876. They saved the investment of millions in wires.

Many appliances and improvements for the transmission of electric light, heat and power.

The electric pen, mimeograph, and teliscribe.

LARGE NUMBER OF EXTRAS USED IN
"ANNABELLE'S AFFAIRS"

In addition to the principals in "Annabelle's Affairs," the Fox picture coming to Cde's theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, 110 well dressed men and women, hotel managers, head waiters, plain waiters, porters, telephone operators, bell boys, elevator operators, chauffeurs, gardeners, house maids, cooks, footmen, butlers, valets, mechanics, grooms, stable-hands and manicurists appear, and many of them do "bits."

In all, close to 500 extras were employed in making this comedy in which Victor McLaglen and Jeanette MacDonald portray the leading roles. Supporting roles are enacted by Roland Young, Ruth Warren, William Collier, Sr., Sam Hardy, Joyce Compton, Sally Blane, George Andre Berger and Hank Mann.

"Annabelle's Affairs" tells the story of a beautiful and sophisticated butterfly type of girl, who is forced, by circumstances, into marriage with a rough and illiterate miner with whom she afterwards falls in love. It is described as a laughing riot.

After forty-two years of operation, the Great Falls street railway is to be discontinued, to give place to buses.

THE BEAVER
MINES HOROSCOPE

As seen in the Crystal by Professor Harry Abdul Clemential Mahomet, at the Castle River Club Concert October 16th, 1931.

You: Beaver Mines and Mountain Mill Their destinies will not fulfill. Until ten years have come and gone. But when the decade's span has run Then Castle River streets will spread From creek to creek to join and wed The two communities, to be One busy hive of industry.

You ask me who, ten years from now, Will still be following the plough? Or who at urge of fond ambition In Castle River holds position?

And what the name of your girls then, And who the wives of your fine young men?

Well, this is what my crystal shows me, Which never fails, so listen closely:

The Honorable Frank Holmes I see A picture of prosperity—

The minister of transportation, Roads, rivers, rail and aviation—

Between Ottawa and Castle River In frequent flights he flies his silver;

The Ballantyne department store Is to a son-in-law turned o'er,

And now his other son-in-law Is postmaster instead of paw;

Since Colonel faces no foreign dangers Since Canada Bruce commands the Rangers,

With Ronald captain and Anthony Lieutenant of our cavalry;

While Chaplain Michiel fills the role Of guardian of the army's soul;

And Links and Sparks, Lynch and Gammache

Are raising Life Guards enough to thrash

Any regiment or brigade

Of foes who dare to our land invade;

Goliath-like Dave Link looms high, His fiery locks athwart the sky—

He deals in motors cars and planes And loves to drive along the lanes

While demonstrating his car's new features

To pretty and interesting teachers, So fascinating are they all—

Blondes and brunettes from short to tall,

He loves them all and can't decide Which one to ask to be his bride,

So he is handing the club a list Of charmers who have ne'er been kissed

Except by him, and he craves advice Or else he says he will just throw dice—

But I foretell he is bound to be A convert to Mormon piety;

The brothers Lang, by father backed, Now farm a thousand-acre tract,

And every up-to-date machine For husbandry may there be seen—

Wilbur has found a wife at last And little Lungs are coming fast—

He waited long for his true soul mate But well she is worth his waity wait;

The Spielman brothers, as haeftore, Are breaking women's hearts galore;

And another flirt in the catalogue Is Harry Dickens, the gay old dog.

But now, the gayest of the gay, Jack Currie leads the whole array—

On raising colts he has changed his mind,

And now for kids is more inclined; A breach of promise suit is brewing

To cure McKechnie's fickle wooing; The Smith boys run the big hotel

And Due ranch at the lake as well; Jack Giola is the sports purveyor,

And Charlie Mitchell sheriff-mayor— His father has got a new lease of life

Since taking a young Canadian wife, And he doesn't even seem to know

El her California or Idaho; Ah, listen! The bagpipes skirl I hear

And two Scotch pipers now appear In kilt and plume and sporrán clad

And tartin of McDonald plaid— Who can they be, decked out so sleekly? Why now, I see—Tom Smith and Mickey.

Tom nimble-footing the Highland sing, While Mickey is garring the bagpipes sing; Bill Barclay, for his years, is still The youngest man around Mountain

Mill; The Beaver Mines and Pincher stage

Are memories of a bygone age, Yet Cain & Sons still take the mail

But now by aeroplane and rail; The farmers now can have it rain

Or shine just as it suits their grain, As Billy Eddy co-operates

With Foster in these Western States; The name Fred Link & Sons I see

On butchers' shops and creamery; Gillis Currie and George and Grace

Each won their heats in the marriage race,

And Grandma Colin is just as vain Of her son-in-law as her other twin;

And the Chelsea wood-pile grows no smaller,

As they are never without a young man caller;

The brothers John and Bobby Eddy Are always for a dance quite ready;

Mott and Joyce are noted names In this year's world's series games;

And when it comes to ladies' choice, There's quite a scramble for Jackie

Joyce; And life is flowery for George Lowery—

He caught a girl with a million dowry;

And Mrs. Popowitch usually wins The trophy for the finest twins;

And I will say good night.

The astonishing discovery that gas can be used for something besides light, heat and committing suicides, was made by the San Francisco police recently. Officers started to arrest a man for being drunk, and he chided them gently: "No liquor on breath," he said, and it was true. "Well, how come you're all twisted around a lamp post like this?" the officers asked. "Just a little monoxide cocktail," the drunk explained. "Take a glass of water, hose on the gas tap and turn on a glass which runs through the water. Then drink the water and it knocks you cuckoo." The officers went on their way soliloquizing that there must be something new under the sun.

THE WORRIER

Take yesterday's worries and sort them all out And you'll wonder whatever you worried about. Look back at the cares which once furrowed your brow; I fancy you'll smile at the most of them now.

They seemed terrible then, but they really were not. For once out of the woods all the fears are forgot.

Look over the list of the blunders you've made, The debts you've accrued and eventually paid.

They frightened you once, and you thought at the time That out of the valley you never would climb.

But you did, and you're living and still going strong In spite of the troubles which happened along.

But I'm for the worrier! I'm for the man Who when he's in trouble does all that he can;

I'm for the fellow who puts up a fight To straighten things out and to make them go right.

And I say for his comfort, when matters seem bad, Tomorrow he'll smile at the troubles he's had.

—Edgar A. Guest.

THE TWIN'S PILLOW FIGHT

Biff, bang, snap, dash.
A squeal, a shriek, a roar,
And mammy hastening to the room,
Stands gazing at the door.

Poor Betty, conquered, beaten,
Lies full prone upon her back,
While Buddy, unrelenting,
Rushes on to fresh attack.

Now, mammy is a neutral,
But she doesn't hesitate
To get right in this little line;
These fighters to berate.

"Yo' git 't' bed, an' stop dat din;
Yo' 'min's me of dem furrin' men,
Jes fightin' 'cos yo' kin."

—Silvia Crosby.

SWANSON PLAYS MODERN IN ROMANTIC DRAMA

Gloria Swanson has an unusually appealing characterization in her latest United Artists' picture, "Indiscreet," which plays at Cole's theatre this week end. The story provides numerous dramatic situations, reminiscent of the type of story she had in "The Trespasser." She appears as Jerry Trent, a modern miss who has her own very definite ideas about the proper way to dominate men and does not hesitate to put them into practice. "Indiscreet," in which Miss Swanson has Ben Lyon as leading man, is a De Sylva, Brown and Henderson production directed by Leo McCarey.

Colin G. Groff, former weekly newspaper publisher in Alberta, has been appointed publicity commissioner for the Alberta government. Mr. Groff was publicity commissioner for the department of agriculture for the four years, 1923-27, and resigned to take on eastern post with the Canadian National Railways. The government office in Edmonton has been vacant since the resignation of D. A. McCannell two years ago.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS
HOLD LARGE CONVENTION

We doubt if at any time since the institution of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Alberta any more interest has been manifested at any grand or subordinate convention than was displayed here on Friday night last, when one hundred members of the subordinate and grand lodges assembled to participate in the proceedings of a district convention.

The lodge session was opened by Chancellor Commander A. Vejpava and officers of Livingstone Lodge, and following a brief order of business the gavel was handed over to the local district deputy, Bro. Jack Griffiths, of Coleman.

At the session, the following grand lodge officers were formally introduced: Joe Searl, grand chancellor, Drumheller; A. C. McArthur, past grand representative, Calgary; W. C. Black, supreme master-at-arms; and W. Bannan, of Medicine Hat, grand keeper of records and seals. In addition, Bro. J. B. Slough, Vancouver, grand chancellor of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, and E. A. Hill, Cranbrook, grand vice-chancellor, were introduced. Others present included: E. S. Bassett, Medicine Hat; Walter McLean, Calgary; W. T. Harvey, Sam Davis, W. S. Stallio, and E. O. Morrison, Vauxhall; H. J. Corbin, Cranbrook; twenty-three members from Michel-Natal and about a similar number from Hillcrest and Coleman.

For the benefit of the visitors, the initiatory degree was conferred in long form on two British Columbia candidates by a team from Turtle Mountain Lodge, Hillcrest, assisted with lantern slides by apparatus and brothers from Michel. The work was indeed highly commendable and brought forth volumes of praise from visiting grand lodge officers and others.

Interesting and impressive address was heard from the visiting heads of the order in the two neighbor provinces and others, following which the session adjourned, and immediately the Pythian Sisters gathered, numbering fifty-eight. Following reception of the sisters and addresses by leaders of Pythianism in the western provinces, tables were spread and two hundred persons were seated to a sumptuous repast, following which the gathering was again addressed by Grand Chancellors Searl and Slough and others and dancing was indulged in for several hours.

The visiting heads of the order were quite satisfied with the spirit exemplified here, and went away fully agreed that Pythianism was not by any means waning in the Crow's Nest Pass.

A number of local brothers and sisters journeyed to Michel on Monday night, where again a very large audience was present to greet the grand chancellor and vice-grand chancellor of the British Columbia domain.

The home building activities of two skunks threw a snag into the smooth progress of the stream of education in an East York township school. The animals decided to spend the winter beneath the school, a portable structure containing two class rooms and housing ninety children. As a result, the children were given a holiday, while school officials sought with only partial success to oust the invaders. Their efforts led to the capture of Mrs. Skunk, but her mate remained firmly entrenched in his position. School officials were considering using tear gas bombs in a determined effort to rid the premises of the intruder.

Blessings on the man who smiles!
I do not mean the man who smiles for effect, nor the one who smiles when the world smiles. I mean the man whose smile is born of an inner radiance, the man who smiles when the clouds lower, when fortune frowns, when the tides are adverse. Such a man not only makes a new world for himself, but he multiplies himself an hundred fold in the strength and courage of other men.—George L. Perin.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS

The official opening of the new hall, owned by Mr. Burke, formerly of Kimberley, took place in the form of a dance on Friday evening last, under auspices of the Corbin Community Club. Around two hundred people were present. The hall, tastefully decorated in Hallowe'en colors, and by the addition of the many colorful gowns worn by the ladies, on thought of an old-fashioned garden in full bloom—just a riot of color, which added a great deal to the gaiety of the evening. The Michel Troubadour, who were engaged to play for the dancing, seemed to outdo themselves in playing their peppiest pieces. A midnight, Mr. Burke served hot dog and pumpkin pies, after which a General Electric telephone clock was drawn for, with Mr. Hastings, a newcomer to camp, as lucky winner. A number of people from Coleman, Michel and Fernie were noticed at the dance. Everybody seemed to be out to make a good night of it, and the orchestra finished up with "Home, Sweet Home" at half past three Saturday morning. The officials of the Community Club are very pleased with the success of their undertaking and are already planning another such event to take place early in the new year.

Mrs. T. Dunlop spent a few days with her mother in Fernie this week.

Mr. W. Headech, of Lundbreck, is at present visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. M. Peel.

Numbers of children in disguising costumes visited Corbin homes, calling for Hallowe'en apples on Saturday night, in honor of the old-time custom. The night was dark, but very few pranks were played, and nothing of a destructive nature.

The Rebekah lodge held their first bridge drive of the season in the Odd fellows' hall on Thursday night. The winners were: Mrs. W. Goss, first, and Mrs. J. Norriquest, consolation.

Dr. and Mrs. Kelman and Mr. and Mrs. Elkington, of Fernie, and Dr. and Mrs. Murchie, of Michel, attended the opening of the new hall here on Friday night.

Work has been started on the Community Club rink, to get it ready for the coming winter season, and the contract has been let for building a ladies' dressing room.

Miss A. Wilson, the junior room teacher, held a Hallowe'en party for her pupils on Friday afternoon.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Miss Nellie McWilliams spent the week end in Calgary.

The Ladies' Guild of the Anglican church met at the home of Mrs. George Porter on Tuesday.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Morrison on Thursday evening of last week. A hope-chest of embroidered linen is being drawn for.

The first of a series of whist drives, in aid of the three churches in town (Catholic, Anglican and United), was held in the Masonic hall on Wednesday evening. Those lucky at winning prizes were: Ladies' first, Miss Nellie McWilliams; second, Miss Doris Musgrave; consolation, Mrs. H. C. Morrison. Gents' first, Dick Alexander; second, Rev. Father O'Dea; consolation, Mr. Lowery. These drives will be held at intervals of every two weeks during the winter months.

G. W. Goad is paying a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gerry at Fernie.

Michael Elton has gone to Similkameen, B.C., where he will pay an extended visit to his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cleland spent the week end with friends in Lethbridge.

Bradford Tustian and Lawrence Robertson are on a hunting trip in the Gap.

Willie McKay, who has been confined to his bed for the past several weeks, recovering from a broken hip bone, is now able to get around with the aid of crutches.

John McConachie is on the sick list, we are sorry to say.

The weather still holds good, with only slight frosts now and then.

A very successful Hallowe'en party was staged in the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday night. Around a hundred children attended, most of whom wore masks and fancy dress. Miss Josephine Porter won the prize for loss of identity. Irene Freeman and Connie Porter won the prize for most original dress as a couple. Many other minor prizes were awarded. The children were led in their merry making by Dick Alexander, who kept them on the jump for around three hours with various games and antics.

A most enjoyable Hallowe'en dance was held in the Lundbreck hall on Friday night last.

A Call To Service

Throughout Canada and the United States national campaigns are now in progress to raise funds and supplies whereunto to meet the needs of hundreds of thousands of people without employment and lacking the very necessities of life.

In the United States a great voluntary organization has been called into existence upon invitation of President Hoover, and it is now engaged in a whirlwind campaign organized upon similar lines to those followed during the war and in the recent Red Cross food disaster appeal. The press, the theatres, the radio, the pulpit, every known kind of organization, all are being mobilized with a view to raising tens of millions of dollars within a few weeks.

In Canada, the Federal and Provincial Governments have assumed responsibility for relief measures, assisted by the municipalities. During the last session of parliament, following Premier Bennett's description of the existing situation in Western Canada as "a national calamity," the House of Commons unanimously voted an unlimited amount of relief. It was not made a party issue, but the Government's request for adequate funds was supported by Conservative, Liberal, Progressive and Labor alike.

But in Canada, as in the United States, the magnitude of the need, and the urgency of the claims of tens of thousands of people upon the sympathy and practical support of their fellow citizens, calls for the active co-operation of all people and organizations. The problem is too big for even the united forces of Federal and Provincial Governments.

The Prime Minister of Canada has, therefore, made an appeal to all the people of Canada, and all the organizations of Canada, to support a nation-wide campaign to raise funds to supplement the efforts of governments in meeting the needs of those who must be supplied with food, clothing, fuel and shelter during the coming winter months.

In other times of national disaster, such as the Halifax explosion and the northern Ontario fires, or international disasters like the Japanese earthquake, the people of Western Canada organized their forces and gave generously to the needs of the stricken. This year not so much will be expected from the people of the Prairie Provinces, instead of being givers, thousands of our people will be the recipients. It is because of the Western situation that the present appeal is made; it is in the West that conditions approaching a national disaster exist.

Nevertheless, there is much that our Western people can do to assist each other; much that neighbor can do for neighbor, and friend for friend. There are thousands of us who can still spare a little something for somebody else. Quite a considerable number of people have already "adopted" some other person or family and have been assisting them for months past, and will continue to do so while the necessity exists. This quiet, unostentatious "adoption" of others in need can, without very great sacrifice on the part of many, be very greatly extended. It will assist Governments in meeting their problems; it will help to keep down the mounting burden of public debt and taxation; it will be able to seriously cripple our future activities and return to better times; it will save some of the more sensitive people from "going on relief" which some regard with almost as much dismay as starvation itself.

Let us, therefore, re-capture some of the old war-times spirit of service and sacrifice. Let us feel the thrill of a great spiritual experience. Let us do our part, small though it may be, to make adequate provisions for those in need in our own communities, so that the fear of cold and hunger will be banished from the hearts of thousands of our fellow-citizens. Such personal and lay a firm foundation for better times. These great national campaigns in Canada and the United States may well prove the turning point in that direction. Therefore, do your part, liberally as you can; most gladly in any event.

Money talks, but apparently it doesn't speak the same language in the United States that it does in Canada.—Toronto Star.

Ruling On Aviation

Provinces Have Control Only Within Their Own Boundaries

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council has allowed the appeal of the Dominion Government of Canada against a decision of the supreme court of Canada on the reference of the question of whether the Dominion or the Provincial authorities have jurisdiction over aviation matters in Canada.

The supreme court had decided the Dominion may control such aeronautical matters as are involved in international affairs and such aerial activities as the Dominion itself engages in, but ruled the provinces had jurisdiction to control and legislate on aviation matters within their own boundaries.

The supreme tribunal, however, upheld the Dominion Government's contention to supreme jurisdiction over aviation matters in Canada. Their lordships' decision incidentally upheld the validity of Dominion aeronautical legislation which had been challenged by the provinces.

SAVED IMPORTED DRESS

"After a little wearing, a lovely green velvet dress, I had bought for $10.00, so completely that it was not wearable. A friend who had admired it advised me to have it dyed. I did so. After a long story short, it turned out beautifully. I have a lovely new dress that really cost just 15c the price of one package of Diamond Dyes."

I have since used Diamond Dyes for both tinting and dyeing. They do either equally well. I am not an expert dyer but I never had a failure with Diamond Dyes. They seem to be made so they always go on smoothly and evenly. They never "spot, streak or run," and friends, never know the things I dye with Diamond Dyes are dyed at all!"

Pacific Relations Meet

Fourth Biennial Conference Is Held At Shanghai

The fourth biennial conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations, the non-official group for the discussion of international problems, was held in Shanghai. It was the first such conference in China, the first two having been held in Hawaii and the third in Kyoto, Japan. Despite the Sino-Japanese difficulties in Manchuria, complete delegations for both Japan and China were present.

Dr. Hsuhshih, Chinese poet, philosopher, and cultural leader, president of the conference said Japanese and Chinese members realized good might result from their meeting together as enlightened men and women "regardless of the calamities which befall their countries through the folly of their rulers."

NEURITIS HAS GONE!

Banished by Kruschen

"I had acute neuritis in the shoulder and left arm, due to exposure in bad weather," writes the Rev. H. E. T. "It was impossible to lift the arm to dress or to use it in any way, and, of course, the pain was dreadful. All external applications were useless. I got it completely normal again by keeping the parts affected warm and taking daily, early in the morning, Kruschen Salts in a tumbler of hot water. It took nearly a month, but every vestige of neuritis has gone."

Neuritis is typical of a dozen other complaints—some minor, some very serious—which all result from impurities in the blood. And it is impure blood, circulating all over the system and setting up inflammation in the tissues that causes these excruciating pains. Kruschen Salts can be safely trusted to set the matter right. Because Kruschen contains just what Nature demands for the removal of impurities back into a healthy, normal condition.

Britain's Population Grows

Increase In England and Wales Two Million Every Decade

The census figures bring home and emphasize a fact that underlies and conditions every one of our social and political problems.

The population of England and Wales is 40,000,000, as near as may be. Add the figure previously given for Scotland, just under 5,000,000, and we get a total population of 45,000,000 for Great Britain.

The number of people in England and Wales is increasing at the rate of 2,000,000 every decade.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century it was only 8,000,000. At the beginning of Queen Victoria's reign it was only 15,000,000. At the time of the diamond jubilee it was only 30,000,000.

Were the present rate of increase to continue, England and Wales in the year 2031 would be something like 50,000,000. The density of population, already greater than that of any other country, would be 1,300 to the square mile, which, falling some unparalleled technological revolution, would be beyond the capacity of any land to support.

It is only the blindest faith in material progress that dare count on such a revolution to avert the terrible consequences that must follow the excessive pressure of population upon the means of support.

Nor is it possible to assume that the surplus could be disposed of by emigration. The great mass movement of population outward from the home islands has already been a thing of the past. There is no reason to think the new countries will lower the barriers which under pressure of their economic situation—they have raised against immigrants.—Daily Herald, London, England.

Thirst For Knowledge

Two Children Support Themselves By Trapping While Attending School

Supporting themselves by trapping, two children, aged seven and nine, endured the hardships of winter in the north country living in a tent so that they could attend school.

This was the story told at Toronto, Ontario, by Dr. J. H. MacDougall of the Provincial Department of Education, addressing the convention of the National League of Compulsory Education officials.

In their thirst for learning the children, David and Arthur Clement, whose mother had died and whose father had returned to his trap lines around Hudson Bay, mushed 40 miles with a dog team, pitched their tent in five feet of snow in a spruce forest, and attended the school-car all through the winter on the five days each month in which it was in their district.

Even when the temperature sank to 50 degrees below zero they did not miss a day, Dr. MacDougall said.

Both Premiums and Losses Much Lower

Marked Drop Shown In Business Of Hall Insurance Companies

Business done by the 33 hall insurance companies operating in western Canada in 1931, amounted to only about one-sixth of the 1930 total, both the income and losses of the companies being reduced to this proportion of the previous year's business.

Net losses amounted to $403,051 in 1931, as against losses of $2,651,320 last year. This represents a saving of $2,248,275 in 1931 from the 1930 figure.

At the same time the gross premiums in the three prairie provinces dropped from $2,965,389 last year to $431,180 in 1931. Accordingly the gross income of the companies decreased by $2,535,209 during the present year.

These conclusions were to be drawn from figures supplied to The Regina Leader-Post by H. H. Campkin, secretary of the Canadian Hall Underwriters' Association.

Alberta had suffered particularly heavy losses in proportion to the premiums paid for the past few years, Mr. Campkin indicated.

"From the repeated disastrous experience in the province of Alberta, many of the companies are seriously considering withdrawing from that province or from the hall insurance business entirely," he said. "Three companies in business since 1916 have already renounced their intention to discontinue writing this class of insurance."

Of the 53 companies whose premiums and losses were represented in the figures he said, 36 were now writing in Alberta, 51 in Saskatchewan and 46 in Manitoba.

From the gross premium totals the expenses of carrying on business would have to be deducted.

Demonstration By Montana Farmer Shows It Is Possible

It may not be long now before farmers throughout the country will be doing their plowing by radio. J. J. Lynch of Miles City, Montana, demonstrated this possibility by plowing a thirty-acre field with a tractor operated by radio.

Two hundred expert electricians, radio operators and business men from most of the Central States witnessed the demonstration. They said it was the first time in history that a tractor, so operated, had actually plowed ground.

Famous Cathedral Cleaned

French Remove Tons Of Dust From Notre Dame de Rouen

Normandy's famous Gothic cathedral, Notre Dame de Rouen, has just emerged spick and span from its first vacuum cleaning. Five tons of dust were removed in the process.

Every corner of the great building with its lofty towers and innumerable chapels crowded with tomb, was penetrated and cleaned. The stone carvings and kings on the west front received a scrubbing, their hands and faces were washed and their robes relieved of the incrustations of centuries.

In order to accomplish this cleaning, special instruments had to be constructed which included "flying scaffolding" and "rolling platforms." Incidentally, four paintings of Biblical subjects, forgotten for many years, were discovered in one of the towers by the cleaners.

The success of this cleaning has been such that it is expected that other cathedrals, especially those containing fine rose windows and stained glass, will follow this example.

"I'M going, anyway"

The modern Miss needs no "time out" for the time of month.

If you've ever taken Aspirin for a headache, you know how soon the pain subsides. It is just as effective in the relief of those pains peculiar to women!

Don't dedicate certain days of every month to suffering. It's fashionable. It's unnecessary. Aspirin will always enable you to carry on in comfort. Take enough to assure your complete comfort. If it is genuine Aspirin it cannot possibly hurt you. Aspirin tablets do not depress the heart. They do not upset the stomach. They do nothing but stop the pain.

Headaches come at inconvenient times. So do colds. But a little Aspirin will always save the day. A throat so sore that you can hardly swallow is made comfortable with one good gargle made from these tablets. Neuralgia. Neuritis. Rheumatism. Pains that once kept people home are forgotten half an hour after taking a few of these remarkable tablets. So are the little nagging aches that bring fatigue and "nerves" by day, or a sleepless night. Genuine Aspirin tablets cost so very little after all, that it doesn't pay to experiment with imitations!

U. S. IS WILLING TO ENTER INTO A NAVAL TRUCE

Washington, D.C.—The United States advised the League of Nations it is willing to join in a world-wide truce on armament construction for a year. A note expressing wholehearted approval was addressed to the League at Geneva after a final conference between President Hoover and Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson.

State department officials said the message was not a lengthy one. This was interpreted as indicating that acceptance was not accompanied by numerous reservations.

"This government is understood, however, to have specified, that the holiday shall not apply to vessels already under construction, and that it affect only new construction which otherwise might have been started during the holiday year."

On this point the nations are reported to be in agreement as it is felt that a sudden cessation of work in the naval shipyards would have serious effects upon employment.

The U.S. note was in reply to an invitation extended by the League in September, urging the 52 nations which are to take part in the general disarmament conference at Geneva in February to join an immediate arms truce calculated to further the success of the event as well as to relieve the nations of a heavy financial load.

The League called upon the governments to state whether they are prepared to accept an armament holiday covering a period of one year from November 1st.

The nations were asked to promise in general terms "to refrain from any measure involving an increase in their armaments." At the same time they are given opportunity to set forth in detail their understanding of what this would involve.

Hinkler Sets Plane Record

Puss Moth Machine Used in 1800 Mile Flight

Kingston, Jamaica.—Bert Hinkler, Australian flyer, who once held the Australia-England flight record, landed here at the conclusion of a non-stop flight from New York. His time was 36 hours.

Toronto, Ont.—The flight of Bert Hinkler, noted Australian flyer, from New York to Kingston, Jamaica, set a new record for a Puss moth aeroplane, said V. O. Levick, superintendent of the De Havilland Aircraft Co. of Canada, Ltd.

The distance was about 1,800 miles. Previous record for a plane of that type, Mr. Levick said, was set by Amy Johnson, famed British aviator, recently, when she flew from London, Eng., to Warsaw, Poland, a distance of about 1,600 miles.

The plan, submitted by the National Coffee Roasters' Association, would become effective in October, 1932. It provides for the sale, to the highest bidder, of 62,500 bags of coffee each month thereafter.

Western Farmers Benefit

Advance In Wheat Prices Estimated To Increase Revenues By $10,000,000

Ottawa, Ont.—Western farmers will benefit to the extent of $10,000,000 as a result of October advances in wheat prices, according to a rough estimate made by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The Bureau estimates that the increased prices may add from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 to the value of wheat stocks held in all positions in Canada.

In a statement prepared for Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Trade and Commerce, the Bureau gives the cash closing prices of wheat at Winnipeg on October 1 and on October 21.

It is on the basis of this comparison that the Bureau estimates at more than $30,000,000 the benefit to western farmers of advancing wheat prices. Increases are registered all along the line from No. 1 Manitoba hard to No. 1 and 2 tough Northern and No. 1 and 2 Durum.

The average advance, the Bureau says, is about nine cents per bushel, or nearly double the bonus of five cents per bushel which is being paid.

"The farmers in the regions of high yields in central Alberta will benefit considerably since their threshing had been delayed and little grain said as yet," the statement sets forth.

"The average farmer in this region has about 85 acres of wheat, yielding about 25 bushels to the acre, and the increase means an extra $145 to $150 to him."

It is significant, the Bureau continues, that these advances in prices were made during a period when deliveries of wheat were the heaviest of the season, "and thus the market was subjected to real hedging pressure most of the time."

Comments By London Press

National Government Organs See Vote As Crushing Blow To Socialism

London, England.—National government organs are jubilant over the election result, and generally describe the overwhelming victory as a crushing repudiation of socialism.

The Daily Telegraph says the "nemeses of political folly and weakness have been swift and deadly. Leaders who betrayed their trust and the party that upheld them have been taught a lesson that will long be remembered."

The newspaper adds that the National Government has a majority far beyond its expectations and that the road is open for enterprise in setting the country on its feet, and leading it into a new path of progress and prosperity.

"The result is an absolutely shattering blow to Labor," comments the News Chronicle. There has been nothing like this landslide since 1918.

The Daily Mail attributes the government victory to a growing enthusiasm in Great Britain for tariffs and the determination of the working class to lead a death blow to "predatory socialism."

The Daily Express says the Socialist party is wiped out by the election result.

"The country has delivered its judgment in no uncertain terms upon the men who ran away," comments The Times.

WANT EMPIRE MEET ARRANGED FOR EARLY DATE

Ottawa, Ont.—The Canadian Government will propose to the governments of the empire that the imperial economic conference, the assembling of which last August was postponed, meet at Ottawa "at the earliest possible date. This was the statement issued to the press by Rt. Hon. B. Bennett, the Prime Minister.

In his statement the Prime Minister expressed the hope that former difficulties surrounding the plan for holding the conference in the Canadian capital "had now been removed."

Mr. Bennett was asked whether, in his opinion, the return of the National Government in Great Britain would mean an early meeting of the imperial conference which, on motion of Canada at the London conference a year ago, was unanimously adjourned to meet at Ottawa "within the succeeding twelve months."

In reply, the Prime Minister authorized the following statement:

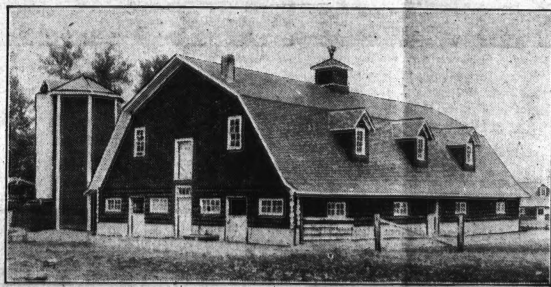

"As the suggested date of meeting was later found to be inconvenient to several of the governments concerned, a postponement became necessary. The Canadian Government earnestly hopes that the difficulties heretofore prevailing have now been removed; and it will immediately propose to the governments of the empire that the conference meet at Ottawa at the earliest possible date."

"This government is confident," continued the Prime Minister, "that the conference will achieve an enduring plan of closer economic association. The need for such an association was never more apparent. Canada will do its full share to bring it about."

Hon. H. H. Stevens Says That Canada Has Overborrowed

At the same time he issued a warning that Canada had "overborrowed."

A "sane and reasonable perspective" would inspire satisfaction in the "capacity of our country to sustain its population in comfort and plenty," he declared, addressing the annual banquet of the Advertising Sales Round Table of Toronto.

Message To The Nation

Ramsay MacDonald Refers To Response To Call For National Unity

London, Eng.—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald issued a message to the nation, thanking millions of persons of all parties who for the moment "subordinated party feelings and issues to the pressing national needs."

"A majority unique as it is gratifying which was given today must convince the whole world that when this country calls for assistance willing hands and devoted minds will always respond," the message said.

"We appealed for a demonstration of national unity. The response has been far beyond the dreams of the most enthusiastic of us."

"To my political friends who have suffered such unusual reverses and especially to those of them who with splendid faith and courage backed our appeal and helped to swell our victory, I give assurance that our triumph will in no way mean that either the interests or the point of view of the working classes will be overlooked in the performance of the task before us."

Less Emigration To U.S.

Fewer Vistas Are Issued To Canadians, Says Report

Washington, D.C.—Only 1,004 Canadians received immigration visas for admission into the United States during September, as compared with 6,151 in the corresponding month in 1928.

The figures as announced at the state department reflect a decrease of 84 per cent. September, 1928, was used for comparison as it was the corresponding month of the last normal fiscal year.

The figures, the state department said, "show the large reduction in the number of immigration visas issued to residents of Canada since the enforcement by United States consular officers of the 'likely to become a public charge' provision of the Immigration Act of 1917."

NATIONALISTS' VICTORY SETS A NEW RECORD

London, England.—"This is no party victory," declared Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader. "It is an emphatic declaration by the people as a whole in favor of national co-operation in order to restore the fortunes of the country. Democracy has justified itself in the most striking fashion and the patriotic instincts of our people have been revealed in all their strength."

Mr. Baldwin was speaking not merely as the leader of the Conservative party, but as the second-in-command of a government which had just annulled the most overwhelming majority the House of Commons has seen in modern times. The Conservatives, National-Labor and National-Liberal are assured a majority of 500 over all other parties combined.

The Labor party's representation in the House had shrunk from 270 to 50. Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, new parliamentary leader of the Labor party, who lost his own seat in Burnley, said:

"The victory establishes an overwhelming Tory supremacy. The new House of Commons will be a mockery of democratic parliamentary representation and from the standpoint of the general national interests there is a danger of disaster."

The National Government will meet Parliament outnumbering the opposition by 10 to one. Probably never in British history has any government won so sweeping a majority. It is almost twice as large as the majority won by Mr. David Lloyd George's coalition in the famous coupon election of 1918. The nearest approach was the Liberal majority of 372 secured far back in 1832.

The Labor party is but a wreck of what it was, Mr. Henderson, its leader, is gone from the House. With him 12 former Labor cabinet ministers were defeated. Fourteen other former Labor ministers, not in the cabinet, went under with them. Rt. Hon. George Lansbury alone is left of all the late members of the Labor cabinet who declined to follow the Prime Minister. With his present standing of 30, Labor has not returned so few members to parliament for 20 years. In the general election Labor lost 235 seats without making a single gain.

The Conservatives, who swept the country from the years of the 20s, gained 206 seats and lost none—a record which again is probably without parallel in the history of the "Mother of Parliaments."

BISHOP SEES A GREAT FUTURE FOR DOMINION

London, Eng.—Rt. Rev. Arthur Poley-Winsington-Ingram, Bishop of London, writes of his recent visit to Canada in the "Empire Review," which appeared Thursday, October 29, suggests:

"If the $200,000,000 spent upon keeping people unemployed in England could be spent in developing Canada, there would be something to show for it, and something which would permanently benefit the world in general."

The bishop writes that what impressed him most on his tour was that Canada would never become the great nation it should be without a far larger population.

"It is all laid out for a great population," he writes. "The railway system will never pay without millions more travelling. Of course the increase must be gradual and as the nation can absorb it. Canada might be, and may be, the greatest nation upon earth," he writes. "She strides the earth at a most strategic point of the earth's surface. She has undeveloped riches beyond count. All she needs are men, boys and girls to unearth the fullness of her life, and the majority of them should be British-born."

"Let Canada not be narrow minded," the bishop continues. "Let her open her arms to all honest workers from all nations, but do not let them crowd out the old British stock. She is bound to the red strand of blood and sacrifice, the white strand of pure home life, and the blue strand of commercial honesty and integrity."

"Let the cord never be broken," he writes in conclusion, "and if it is kept firm and if, in ever increasing numbers, we go over from the Old Country to help her in developing her strength, then the Canada of today, great as it is, will be nothing to the Canada of tomorrow."

"The Canada of tomorrow," he writes in conclusion, "and if it is kept firm and if, in ever increasing numbers, we go over from the Old Country to help her in developing her strength, then the Canada of today, great as it is, will be nothing to the Canada of tomorrow."
